Understanding Confidence in the Bible

Confidence in the Bible is portrayed not merely as self-esteem but as a profound trust in God's power, presence, and promises. Unlike worldly confidence that may rely on personal abilities or circumstances, biblical confidence is anchored in faith and the assurance that God is sovereign and faithful. This spiritual confidence empowers believers to face challenges, uncertainties, and adversities with courage and hope. It is a confidence that arises from knowing God's Word and relying on His strength rather than one's own limitations. Exploring the biblical perspective on confidence reveals its connection to courage, faith, and obedience to God's will.

The Source of True Confidence

True confidence according to scripture originates from a relationship with God. Scriptures emphasize that relying on God's guidance and promises provides a foundation that is secure and unshakable. This confidence is not dependent on external validation but on the internal assurance that God is in control and actively working for the good of those who trust Him. Biblical confidence grows as believers deepen their faith through prayer, meditation on scripture, and obedience.

Confidence Versus Arrogance

The Bible distinguishes between godly confidence and arrogance. While confidence is humble and rooted in God's truth, arrogance is prideful and self-centered. Scriptures warn against boasting in one's own strength or wisdom, encouraging instead a spirit of humility and dependence on God. Understanding this distinction helps believers cultivate a healthy confidence that honors God and uplifts others.

Richmond, 2014-03-12 This book was written to help all born-again Christians to believe that Eternal Life begins in our present life on earth and continue on into the World of Eternity. It is designed to impress on the minds of all humankind that those who are considered their enemies, will respond and repay them in kindness as a friend. Accordingly, the chosen subject, The Road to Eternal Life, was selected in order to broaden my knowledge and understanding of Christian believer's concepts as to why Eternal Life can be lived in our present day journey on earth, and it is a viable truth in God's plan of salvation. Also, this research is devoted to find out what concepts theories, and beliefs already exist in this area. In addition, my goal was to read and understand the history why Jesus Christ's teachings' are the Way, the Truth, and Everlasting Life for all who repent of sins and believe His Gospel. In addition, my purpose is with the intent to gain a new perspective and pursue efforts to add new thoughts and ideas and to strengthen prior ones in relation to the Kingdom of God which concerns the future and the End of Time.

Furthermore, to pursue efforts in detailed reviews of other book data that contain ideas, concepts, and key theories of biblical opinions of God's Eternal Life Plan... Then analyze and evaluate these sources information and evidence used in their conclusion. Likewise, consider the values of other source ideas, theories, concepts, practices that are useful in today's religious culture. Similarly, there is the desire to pursue creative innovations efforts which set forth new theories never before revealed on the subject of Eternal Life. In addition, my efforts are directed to provide accepted meaning, and strength, and theories that already exist. Likewise, the primary design of this research is: (1). to determine what claims are made by major sources in traditional work, (2). to determine if these prior sources actually report viable data, and evaluate and assess the validity of their arguments given for rejection/acceptance of Eternal Life, (3). to determine what ideas, theories, and practices are based on inductive and deductive practices.
