Overview of Big Time Rush

Big Time Rush is a pop boy band that gained widespread popularity through their self-titled Nickelodeon television series, which aired from 2009 to 2013. The band consists of four members: Kendall Schmidt, James Maslow, Carlos Pena Jr., and Logan Henderson. The show followed the fictional lives of these four hockey players as they pursued a music career in Los Angeles. The success of the TV show propelled the band into real-life stardom, resulting in several albums, world tours, and a dedicated fan base. Understanding the background and history of Big Time Rush provides valuable context for any quiz focused on the group, as questions often delve into their personal backgrounds, career milestones, and notable achievements.

Band Formation and TV Series

Big Time Rush was formed by Nickelodeon in 2009, combining a scripted television series with a real-life music group. The TV show was developed to showcase the fictional journey of four friends chasing their dreams as a band, while the members also released music and performed live as an actual band. This dual concept was innovative at the time and helped the band build a unique identity in the entertainment industry.

We have followed Jay since the first quiz right up to now and I honestly cannot believe how truly remarkable he is after reading more about his story . . . If you are looking for a real page turner that you just can't put down you've found it here with this book. Cannot recommend highly enough.'    'What an amazing but at times difficult read, Jay has really put his heart on the line in his autobiography, a very brave thing to do.'    ----- Jay Flynn was down on his luck when the Covid pandemic struck. He had just lost the tenancy of the pub he ran in Lancashire - and with it the loyal community of locals who loved his quirky weekly quiz. As the world closed down, he sensed the quiz could now be a lifeline both for him and the locals - so he sent them invites to an online version. But he had forgotten to mark the event 'private', and on the night, a disbelieving Jay played quizmaster to half a million teams, from Kenya to Canada, New Zealand to the Ukraine. This was to be the start of a global online quiz sensation, earning more than £1 million for charity and Jay an MBE, as well as his own slot on Zoe Ball's BBC Radio 2 Breakfast Show. It was all the more incredible because, as a lost and troubled young man, Jay had spent two years homeless, sleeping on a bench on the Embankment in London, almost taking his own life. Rescued by a homeless charity, he'd learnt how a simple community can save lives. It proved a priceless lesson. Now, in his inspiring memoir, Jay shows how, sometimes, you can find the answers you're seeking in the most unexpected places.

big time rush quiz: Diamond Stories Renée Rose Shield, 2018-07-05 Sequestered within the heart of a cosmopolitan city is an exotic world—a place where diamonds, astronomically priced, are bought and sold on the strength of a handshake, and business disputes are resolved according to ancient Jewish principles of arbitration. Yet it is also a modern industry facing the same fundamental global changes affecting all businesses today. In Diamond Stories, Renée Rose Shield leads us into the unexamined realm of wholesale diamond traders in New York. Related to several well-respected traders, she had unprecedented access to a society normally closed to outside inquiry. Here she deftly blends her personal relationship and her anthropological training to provide an insightful exploration of this tradition-bound industry, the new challenges it faces, and the ways both industry and individuals adapt to and endure change. Shield begins with a fascinating history of diamond mining, combining the story of the De Beers cartel, the role of Jews in the trade, and the part diamonds have played both in war and liberation. Throughout, she incorporates commentary by current diamond traders. Succeeding chapters explore the evolving nature of both the global trade and the New York diamond district. Shield takes a close look at the increasingly complex ethnic makeup of the district, illuminates the rarely documented work done by women, chronicles the resilient system of arbitration, and reveals the ways in which many traders work well into their eighties and nineties. Their long lives of work, cushioned by the trade's social environment, offer hints for successful aging in general.
